CT REALTORS® Announces State REALTOR® of the Year

CT REALTORS® honors David Gallitto as the 2024 state REALTOR® of the Year. The association made the announcement during its October Board of Directors meeting. The statewide award annually recognizes a REALTOR® for outstanding effort as well as service to the community, the real estate industry and the REALTOR® organization.

“I am completely honored and humbled. The best compliment you can get is to be recognized by your peers,” says Gallitto. “To have that happen to me really puts a cap on a lot of the work I achieved as president of CT REALTORS® last year and everything I continue to do this year. I couldn’t be more honored.”

Gallitto serves on the CT REALTORS® 2024 Executive Committee as the Immediate Past President, after serving as the 2023 CT REALTORS® President. He has been a REALTOR® for more than 20 years. Gallitto was president of the New Haven Middlesex Association of REALTORS® in 2016 and was the association’s local REALTOR® of the Year in 2013.

2024 CT REALTORS® President Carl Lantz says, “David’s passion and commitment to his fellow REALTORS® and his community are unmatched. His leadership over the past two years has helped me and all our colleagues continue to grow and be advocates for property owners in the state.”

Gallitto will be recognized during the National Association of REALTORS® annual conference in November in Boston.

Gallitto is an agent with Huntsman Meade & Partners in New Haven. He is a native of Middletown and a graduate of the University of Notre Dame. He still calls Middletown home and is a proud father and grandfather.

CT REALTORS® is the state’s largest trade association, representing nearly 19,000 members involved in all aspects of real estate in Connecticut.
