CT REALTORS® Honors State REALTOR® of the Year

CT REALTORS® selected Steven Miller as the 2026 state REALTOR® of the Year. Miller was recognized this week during the National Association of REALTORS® annual conference in New Orleans. The association announced Miller's selection during its October Board of Directors meeting. The statewide award annually recognizes a REALTOR® for outstanding service to the community, the real estate industry and the REALTOR® organization.

"This recognition means so much to me. I'm grateful to my colleagues, clients, friends, and family for their support throughout the years.," says Miller. "Real estate has always been about serving others, building relationships, and giving back to our communities. Thank you to everyone who has been part of this journey. I'm proud to represent our profession and look forward to continuing to serve Connecticut homeowners and fellow REALTORS®."

Miller serves on the CT REALTORS® 2026 Executive Committee as Immediate Past President after serving as association President in 2025. He's also held multiple positions on the Executive Committee and Board of Directors over the years. Miller has been a REALTOR® for more than 45 years, dedicated to the industry and his clients.

2026 CT REALTORS® President Alexa Kebalo says, "Steve is a tremendous asset to our association and the real estate industry. He dedicates so much time, talent and leadership to his clients and to the profession. His passion and knowledge make him truly stand out."

Miller is a REALTOR® with Coldwell Banker Realty in North Haven and a member of the New Haven Middlesex Association of REALTORS®, which honored him as a local REALTOR® of the Year in 2015. He is the proud father of two adult daughters and is very close with his 11-year-old a grandson.

CT REALTORS® is the state's largest trade association, representing nearly 18,000 members involved in all aspects of real estate in Connecticut.
