Connecticut REALTOR® Selected for National Association of REALTORS® Leadership Academy

CT REALTORS® Vice President at Large Alexa Kebalo Hughes is one of just 20 REALTORS® from across the country selected to participate in the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR) 2023 Leadership Academy. The 10-month program prepares state and local leaders for future leadership positions with NAR.

Kebalo Hughes says she is honored to be part of the academy. "I truly love the real estate industry and the impact we're able to make in the lives of our clients and communities. I am humbled by this opportunity. As a REALTOR® organization, we can always continue to grow and learn to better serve our clients and to help them achieve the American Dream."

NAR 2023 President Kenny Parcell says, "NAR's Leadership Academy identifies, inspires and mentors the next generation of REALTOR® leaders for future opportunities at the local, state and national level. Volunteer leaders are crucial to the real estate industry and by better understanding the needs and strategies of our trade association, Leadership Academy graduates continue to provide positive, lasting changes in the years ahead."

In addition to past and present roles with both CT REALTORS® and NAR, Kebalo Hughes was president of the Greater Hartford Association of REALTORS® in 2021 and was selected for REALTOR® Magazine's 30 Under 30 Class of 2019.

Kebalo Hughes is a sales agent with eXp Realty, specializing in the Greater Hartford area.

The 2023 Leadership Academy program begins in January 2023 with both virtual and in-person educational experiences
